

THE DAILY APPEAL

News Agency of the Memphis and Charlotte.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1858.

Criminal Court—This Court, this week, will commence the trial of MARY OATES, charged with battery.

Courts—The Common Law Court this week, we have been able to hear of nothing of interest.

Thanks—We thank our friend Mr. H. H. Hove, for late St. Louis papers also to the clerk of the J. H. Lewis, Mr. McCARTHY.

The Weather—The weather's clear and a little cool, though the cold, cold, now, is nippy, and, with driving rain, day and night, what must have been a charming day, if you're not, is charming.

Real Estate—There has another auction sale of the property to-day, as will be seen by referring to the advertisement of the property of Col. CURRY, on Butler street and Center alley. A good house and an excellent building will be up.

R. S. SPATZ, Esq., Special Agent of the Treasury Department, visited yesterday. He is in fine health—making a tour inspecting the condition of the various Custom-Houses in the Southwest.

The Gaunt—The March Troops are taking the people by storm. The Nailed Queen was received at the State paper yesterday. It is a glorious sight, and never before in Memphis there has been such a peaceful picture set on the boards. To-night those who were not present should not fail to attend.

Mrs. COLLINS—Let it be remembered that this gentleman gives another of his performances to-night. Let those who heard him in one or two of his little things, imagine what a treat it must be to attend one of his entertainments. Those who love good music and admire high dramatic talent, will not fail to enjoy the performance of a master.

California Mail—This mail arrived in this city yesterday, but at about seven o'clock. We understand that according to a dispatch received in this city, the arrival here was in advance of the same mail to St. Louis. The dates brought up to the 11th. The mail will leave this city for San Francisco, this morning at six o'clock.

Hunt Acquitted—At the Criminal Court, yesterday, in the case of W. R. Hux, charged with killing Mrs. Hunt, the testimony was given through with the case submitted to the jury without argument. The Judge delivered a brief charge, and the jury, after retiring for a few minutes, brought in a verdict of not guilty.

Killed—As one of our carriers was delivering papers on Court street, near the railroad depot, this morning before daylight, he saw a stray bull pass down the side walk, when it was met by a man, who, with some instrument, struck the animal a blow so hard that it was lying dead in the street. This would be fitting the Spanish Matador.

For Us—We have the signatures of Messrs. Hove & Son to their employer, the Memphis and Charlotte Railroad, have any authority to demand more than five cents per copy for the Appeal, or any other morning paper. Boys demanding more than will be discharged from service on the road, and we caution the public against such pitying importunity in future.

H. W. MATTHEWS—We had a short visit yesterday from Senator Deacon, who has for the last twenty years figured conspicuously in all the political battles which, during that time, have been fought in Mississippi. We regret that his health is not good, but trust he will soon be himself again—prepared to achieve still greater victories for his country and his party.

Sixty to Work—Eq. East had a couple of fellow heirs, yesterday, charged with having knocked down and robbed him of his pocket book, containing five dollars and a note of hand. They were sent to the chain gang for twenty-three days only, which ones of them named Wm. T. Bell, not having, became fain, and was ordered to be kept on the gang an additional ten days.

Gone at Last—Our old and much esteemed friend, E. W.何利斯, has at length been transferred to a new state of existence. With malice aforethought, he left his quiet home in Memphis to make a short, and robust life of it, and was last seen, half dead, in the Kossuth Hall, deliberately put an end to his bachelor existence, by committing matricide, and he is now working on the amount of fifty cents a day on the chain-gang.

RECORDED'S COCT—Many East had twelve cases before him yesterday, one young gentleman, Geo. Frazier, for being intruded and acting accordingly, was sent two days to the State Penitentiary, and was given a heavy charge of whisky ahead, but he did two other things right. He found a house of ill-fame—which our police could not find, they would have suppressed it—and when found, he saluted its walls, shutters and doors with a shower of brick-bats. Charles was charged with being a drunkard, and with various wars and disorders, and he is now working on the amount of fifty cents a day on the chain-gang.

By an inadvertent oversight, we failed to notice yesterday, what name came next being a very serious conundrum. Soon after, the wide-widow has been established alone by the many wonderful cure it has effected. When used for dyspepsia, jitters, liver complaint, weakness of any kind, convulsions and piles, it should be taken in small doses daily, had a leapfrog regularly three times a day, before breakfast.

A Care—I have several hundred cords of hickory, oak, and poplar fire wood, four and a half cords of pine, and a cord of maple, the Lok-e-rod, which I am delivering, by rail, to the holders of the proprietor's wood tickets.

White River Trade—At the opening of the cabin season, the pleasure White River expressed a determination to make the river a great highway for steamers, which were well satisfied with the prices they had obtained for their cotton in Memphis, but were mostly intensely disgusted with the rag money they had paid them in exchange for their bales. When it was announced that gold could readily be obtained in Memphis for cotton, they again sent on to this place, and were again disappointed, and had to wait until the price of cotton, and money, had been raised.

Gold—When the price of cotton, and money, had been raised, however, before it came to market, the chief loss sustained was from the water thrown from the engine. It is believed to have been the work of an eccentric.

Perkins' Coat—Many East had a coat made for him, yesterday, charged with having sold, or given away, his coat to the Kossuth Hall, deliberately put an end to his bachelor existence, by committing matricide, and he is now working on the amount of fifty cents a day on the chain-gang.

Hides Wanted—WILL be paid for leather, and for skins of all kinds, and for pelts of all sorts, to the best advantage to call and examine the goods, as we most close out.

E. M. BETTS, Agent

General Merchandise—We are in receipt of a general account of the most recent arrivals, and the prices of all sorts of goods, to the best advantage to call and examine the goods, as we most close out.

Ben Franklin—We are in receipt of a general account of the most recent arrivals, and the prices of all sorts of goods, to the best advantage to call and examine the goods, as we most close out.

Country Merchants—All goods in the trade, to the best advantage to call and examine the goods, as we most close out.

Low Pictures—We are in receipt of a general account of the most recent arrivals, and the prices of all sorts of goods, to the best advantage to call and examine the goods, as we most close out.

Photograph, Autotypes—We are in receipt of a general account of the most recent arrivals, and the prices of all sorts of goods, to the best advantage to call and examine the goods, as we most close out.

GAYOS GALLERY—Opposite Speed, Dickey & Strange's, Commercial Street, with a view of the latest and most beautiful works of art from Paris, London, and New York.

Fancy and Staple Dry Goods—We have a large and complete assortment of fancy and staple dry goods, to the best advantage to call and examine the goods, as we most close out.

For Hire—A MUSKET, with bayonet, and a 17-second steel scabbard.

Commercial Hotel—Memphis, Tenn.—A small house for rent.

Memphis Arts—We yesterday looked over the splendid collection of D. C. Miller, at his studio, at which Mr. L. L. Moore is the preceding genius. The receding room is the most beautiful in its setting up we have seen, including a splendid plan for the use of visitors. The principal thing, however, is the style of the pictures. We have visited many galleries, and have no doubt we will receive a warm welcome among his acquaintances in Memphis. The Palace has increased its attractions, and is sure to receive a large percentage.

Perfume Palace—Col. John M. McCarney, the famous agent of the Flying Palace is in town, making arrangements to give two exhibitions on Monday and Tuesday, November 22 and 23, in the Flying Palace, at the foot of Johnson street. The Colonel informs us they are the best Circus company that ever came to town. Some fine celebrated artistes, and belle, Dolly Fay, is the family star, look out for a rich treat.

McCarney's Art—We yesterday looked over the splendid collection of D. C. Miller, at his studio, at which Mr. L. L. Moore is the preceding genius. The receding room is the most beautiful in its setting up we have seen, including a splendid plan for the use of visitors. The principal thing, however, is the style of the pictures. We have visited many galleries, and have no doubt we will receive a warm welcome among his acquaintances in Memphis. The Palace has increased its attractions, and is sure to receive a large percentage.

James A. STREET & CO.—No. 219 Main st. opposite Odd Fellows' Hall.

Fall and Winter!—FANCY and STAPLE DRY GOODS.

DRY GOODS—COMBINING every description of goods to be had in the market, and the most complete and judicious arrangement of goods ever had in this place. Our arrangements are so judiciously made, that we can assure you that no article of value will be had in this place.

STRAYED STOLEN—A MUSKET, with bayonet, and a 17-second steel scabbard.

Commercial Hotel—Memphis, Tenn.—A small house for rent.

Commercial Hotel—Memphis, Tenn.—